Introduction

The name and birthdate that appear on a birth certificate forms a unique numerical blueprint for the life of the individual. How well the individual expresses the numerical vibrational traits assigned to the name and birthdate is dependent upon their initial launching through their home environment, the structure and moral teachings of their parents, their level of education, and the breaks that one may or not receive on the path of life.

Any challenge, loss, or experience that shakes up your understanding of life, as you know it, should be regarded as an opportunity for growth. Not everyone responds in a positive way or makes the most out of a situation. It is your understanding and attitude of life that determines what is to be gained from the experience itself. It can be the beginning of your personal transformation into a higher realm of consciousness and development. Without conscious intention nothing can happen in moving you toward your goals in life. The ultimate goal then is for each person to learn how to flow with life's challenges in order to enrich their life.

Each number component found in your blueprint will either be calculated as a single-digit number (x) or as a compound number (xx/x). Single-digit numbers represent one unique behavioral trait as opposed to the compound number that is more complex because it's made up of three different behaviors, each acting like an individual contributor that must work in sync in order to be compatible. For that reason, compound numbers have a more in-depth meaning than single-digit numbers.

There are eight compound numbers: 19/1, 11/2, 13/4, 22/4, 14/5, 23/5, 16/7 and 18/9. Two of these numbers, 11/2 and 22/4, are considered to be "Master" numbers and therefore, are even more intensified than the other numbers. The double-digit numbers deepen certain aspects, and diminishes others, but it never eliminates any characteristic found in the compound number completely. Behavioral traits are a mix of either aggressive, nonaggressive, passive or impulsive characteristics and therefore, are not always compatible within the set of three traits.

Following is a personalized written explanation for each of the personal characteristics and behavioral traits found in your blueprint or spiritual master plan and are unique only to you. We are all born with a blueprint that is derived from the birth name and birthdate. This blueprint also provides the discipline and the direction to fulfill your full potential and purpose assigned to you at birth.

Destiny/Intellect

Your Destiny/Intellect is the mental aspect and the controlling factor in deciding what you choose to receive from experiences in this lifetime. It is what you are born to do, and the part you are to play on the stage of life, now and in the future. It is the way your intellect “looks” at the how, what, when, where and why of your experiences. Your Destiny defines the nature of the potential experiences unfolding in your personal reality. The Destiny number is what the birthdate reveals; therefore, making this a permanent trait that is with you for life.

Your Destiny/Intellect #23/5 = Diplomat, Creative Imagination, Freedom Lover

You were meant to be a free-spirited individual requiring variety, change, freedom, creativity and travel in a playful way. This Destiny is considered to be a great combination of traits that are fun and adventurous. The passive trait brings a vibration of peace, diplomacy, and receptivity to the self-expression and creativity of the social and impulsive traits. Together these numbers represent a very creative, lively, and pleasant vibration. It's easy to spin out of control with the progressive thinker who likes adventure and independence without restrictions. This trait requires grounding so you don't spin out of control in order to accomplish your goals.

Soul Desire (Also called Heart's Desire)

This is the emotional aspect of you and is the innermost desire of the heart calling out for you to seek to express yourself in this world. You should heed the call of this inner voice and act upon it. Your Soul Desire is a reflection of the emotions, the way you feel about things, people, places and situations including how you view yourself and your life. Your emotions react to your environment in which you find yourself, based on the models you have established or set up for you on that inner level. It is the inner you that interprets and expresses your emotional responses to people and the environment around you.

Your Soul Desire #11/2 = (Master Number) = Super Diplomat, Super Visionary

This Soul Desire is a Master number and represents a much higher energy and imaginary level. You are inventive and creative with an electrical type of mind. Your psychic ability is inborn but may need to be developed, leading you to become a “seer” or a “counselor.” You have a desire to be in a leadership role, that is an aggressive trait; however, your sensitivity and emotions are passive and functions as a partner rather than to lead causing conflicts within the aggressive and passive traits. Your desire is actually to be out in the limelight to motivate and inspire others; yet you are very sensitive and that side of the trait does not like the limelight. There lies the conflict within this Soul Desire between the aggressive and passive characteristics that tend to be in conflict.

Personality

Your Personality forms the first real impression you make on others and is the physical aspect of you. It forms the outer self and is the total composite of expressions of the etheric, the emotional, the intellectual, and the physical aspects that you will radiate to others. When you walk into a room, you will give off “first impressions” and give off “vibrations” which people will pick up and interpret. People tune in first to the “physical” appearance that comes “before” you make the “first” impression. It is human nature initially not to judge a person from your personality but by your physical appearance, which can lead to misunderstandings and even business failure. Keep in mind that a man or woman’s personality is not the true self, nor does it represent the inner nature. Instead, it is the outer self, the presentation card that matters when meeting others in social or business settings.

Your Personality #13/4 = Leadership, Creative Imagination, Builder

This Personality is a combination of three vibrational traits that can be disruptive (aggressive, impulsive and restrictive) that must work together as team players to be effective. The aggressive trait represents an ambitious and independent leader while the impulsive and creative power of this trait wants to play and adhere to restrictions; therefore, these two traits are in conflict. All this power is somewhat controlled by the limitations of the rigid and restrictive trait that thrives on stability, detail, hard work, and discipline. The combination of these three characteristics can be at odds with each other so knowing how this Personality works, you will be able to better adjust.

Purpose

Your Purpose reveals what your mission in life is or will be. It will tell you specifically what you must do and be, not what you are or what you may desire to be. It specifies all the experiences that you will need as an individual to get the most out of your own life. Also known as the intuitive aspect, the purpose reveals itself to you in the form of hunches that are different and are separate from your own thinking processes. It is what you will sense as truth from within (that is, knowing without needing knowledge or facts), a view of your life experiences that knows what you should be to gain the most from living. These patterns define the way your intuition guides you in seeing the how, what, when, where and why of your experiences. This is the intuitive aspect of you, the higher, silent self, which is a part of you, your inner connection with the forces of the universe. The intuitive aspect is the part of you that knows about those things before you become aware of them. It is the link between your physical, emotional, and intellectual experiences, the super conscious mind.

Your Purpose #6 = Cosmic Parent, Service to Others

This Purpose is to give comfort and service to others whether it is done in the home or out in the community. You are called the cosmic parent and your success will depend on how much you can do for others. The rewards will come through your service, love, and devotion. The best things in life will be present when the thoughts are for the good of others in a broad and impersonal manner. You are inspirational to the people you serve as this trait is gentle and passive.

Mid-Life Goal

The Mid-Life Goal is the last half of your life that will manifest itself as a subtle influence that comes to the surface from about age 50 on. Its function is to give both hope and opportunity for continued purpose during your latter days and it is called the ultimate goal by some for this could result in retirement, taking on a new career or whatever hobbies that might have been put off in your earlier years.

Your Mid-Life Goal #11/2

Personal Year

The nine-year cycle begins when you are born on any Personal Year number and from there, the first cycle ends with Personal Year #9. The new cycle begins with Personal Year #1 and completes with Personal Year #9. Each birthdate the Personal Year number goes up in numerical order, from birthdate-to-birthdate throughout your life. The purpose of this Personal Year is to forewarn you of what your assignment is for that birthdate that lasts until your next birthdate. Birthdate Cycles

The Cycle numbers are important because they represent how you will feel internally (emotionally) during each of these age spans and the nature of your life experiences. The vibration of each cycle will last for the duration of that particular age span that you are in. These are considered assignments that you may not complete during a particular cycle or push them into the next cycle to resolve them or you just cannot do either. Soul Qualities/Life Lessons

There are eight Soul Qualities or Life Lessons as they are called and each is assigned a numerical value based on a formula used to calculate the Soul Qualities. These numbers indicate if the particular Soul Quality has already been developed and to what degree or if it is an area that must be developed in order to achieve your highest potential in this lifetime. Soul Qualities, #1, #3 and #5 will have a normal value of “3” while Soul Qualities #2, #4, #6, #7 and #8 will have a normal value of “1.” If your chart shows a zero “0,” that represents a Karmic Lesson and those are harder to overcome and require a great deal of more work on your part to resolve those areas that need more improvement. When Life Lessons are developed, they enhance your personal growth. If you choose not to develop areas identified as challenges, those lessons left unresolved will affect your ability to live up to your potential assigned to you at birth and make your journey much more difficult.

A “0-” value on any Soul Quality means the person has a Karmic lesson to learn. A Soul Quality assigned a number value with a “plus” means that the person has been developing this quality and exceeds the normal value indicated. A Soul Quality assigned a number value followed by a “minus” means the person has not yet reached the particular level of understanding for that Soul Quality and has more work to do in that area in order to achieve balance and full potential.

Your Soul Quality #1 = 2- Develop Leadership Skills

This Soul Quality represents an aggressive leader and pioneer who is independent and self-reliant and wants to be in charge. The standard rating number for this Soul Quality is a “3,” so anything higher than a “3+” would indicate you came into this lifetime with above average leadership skills.

If your chart indicates a “0-” or “less” than 3, than the normal value means you will need to develop yourself through your own efforts, abilities and drive in order for you to succeed as a leader paving the roads for others to follow.

Your Soul Quality #2 = 0- Overcome Sensitivity & Avoidance of Confrontation

This Soul Quality is a cooperative, sensitive, and nonaggressive trait of a diplomat or peacemaker which thrives in a partnership; always a partner and never a leader. The standard rating number for this Soul Quality is a “1,” so anything higher than a “1+” would indicate you came into this lifetime to develop yourself in this area which is one of the two most difficult development areas for personal growth of the eight Soul Qualities.

A “0-” on the #2 Soul Quality indicates that you are overly sensitive, submissive, unable to speak your truth and avoid confrontation. It’s very hard to overcome sensitivity and avoidance of confrontation and it will take work on your part to want to overcome those obstacles.

Your Soul Quality #3 = 1- Develop Creativity & Self-Expression

This Soul Quality gives you the inborn desire to express yourself through creative channels. You are romantic, social, and ambitious with the tendency to “scatter” your energies. The standard rating number for this Soul Quality is a “3,” so anything higher than a “3+” would indicate you came into this lifetime with more talent and creativity whether you develop your creativity now or later without even realizing that you have talent. This is the second most difficult development are for personal growth to develop if you avoid confrontation and are unable to communicate and express yourself.

A “0-” or “less” than the normal value will indicate the need for you to develop yourself socially, verbally, and also in a creative way for these traits are lacking. This means you will need to work on your sensitivity and avoidance of confrontation or you can be easily manipulated by others for not being able to speak your truth.

Your Soul Quality #4 = 1 Establish Stability & Security

This Soul Quality signifies the “builder” whose purpose is to form new ideas to product projects for the benefit of others. You are loyal, hardworking, detail oriented and good in management. The standard rating number for this Soul Quality is a “1,” so anything higher than a “1+” would indicate being more conservative, not so flexible, and wanting to play it safer in making decisions since stability and financial security is your priority.

A “0-” means that you must stay out of fear in order to become more flexible and progressive since you are not one to necessarily like change. Letting go of what no longer serves you is part of what you would need to learn to overcome.

Your Soul Quality #5 = 4+ Manage Freedom, Change & Responsibility

This Soul Quality represents the desire for freedom, movement, change, travel, progress, communication and curiosity to make this “the’ sparkling vibration. The standard rating number for this Soul Quality is a “3” so anything higher than a “3+” would indicate the desire for change, freedom and travel but yet requiring grounding so not to spin out of control.

A “0-” or “less” than the normal value means you must learn to respond, adapt and work to be a part of the world while maintaining balance in your life – balancing your “freedom” with your “responsibilities.”

Your Soul Quality #6 = 1 Work on Relationships & Service to Others

This Soul Quality is a domestic vibration devoted primarily to partnerships, family, home, and service to the community. These combinations including artistic talent make this a very magnetic vibration. The standard rating number for this Soul Quality is “1,” so anything higher than a “1+” would indicate that you need to set boundaries, so you are not taken advantage of as you will go overboard with caregiving to please others and then feel taken advantage of.

A “0-” means that you must strive for a good balance between your emotions and intellect, learn about service to others, and to adapt and respond to challenges without sacrificing yourself for others and then feeling burdened for taking on the responsibility.

Your Soul Quality #7 = 1 Balance Intellect & Spirituality

This Soul Quality is an intellectual vibration which is reserved, selective, aloof, analytical, hermit-like and also magnetic. The standard rating number for this Soul Quality is a “1,” so anything higher than a “1+” would indicate the level of intelligence. Generally, if your rating is a “3” or higher, that would indicate you have a photographic memory; therefore, a higher-than-normal intelligence.

A “0-” suggests that you must develop your technical skills and seek a deeper meaning in your life to know what real faith is all about and that includes spirituality and personal development. Creativity and fitness will help to balance out the intellectual mind, so this individual can develop social skills to maintain a more domestic balance in life.

Your Soul Quality #8 = 0- Attain Ambition & Success

This Soul Quality is about compassion, sound judgment, financial ambition, and a desire for fame and success, making this an energetic. The standard rating number is a “1,” so anything higher than a “1+” would indicate you have the ability to achieve financial success based on your goals. If the number is higher than a “1” and you have not achieved your financial goals, it is the result of the decisions you’ve made that prevented you from succeeding or you have a lack mentality brought in from childhood. If you are an impulsive spender or a hoarder, neither of these two opposites will gain you success.

A “0-” shows that money was mismanaged in the past for whatever reason or you experienced bankruptcy or credit card debt. As a result, you must assume all responsibility for your life and learn all there is about money – learn how to make money, and how to manage money. In addition, you will need to work on balancing the “spiritual” and “material” planes in order to bring about harmony in your life.
