Introduction

The Essence Numerology Chart takes Numerology to the next level by allowing the process of self-acceptance and self-advocacy to begin to heal your mind and heart. What makes this Essence Chart so unique is the healing strategy that has been designed and programmed into the chart. The purpose of this chart then is simply to provide you with valuable information not ordinarily found about your life anywhere else including a holistic look at your entire life. Having the ability to view your experiences and then having the opportunity to look five years into the future definitely has its advantages in helping you to build and maintain a lifetime of good choices, right decisions, and prosperous experiences because you will have advance notice of the type of vibrational patterns you will be attracting each year.

The information found in this chart is an accurate, in-depth, and far-reaching look at what you are working through inwardly (emotionally, intellectually and physically) year-by-year, and is a combination of your Essence, Personal Year, and Universal Year numbers. These three number combinations represent the differing physical, mental and spiritual elements that influence each year of your life, tracking you from Age "1" to your "Current Age" plus "5" Years into the future.

Understanding Your Essence Chart

Your Essence chart is laid out by your age range in 20-year increments, starting from your birth year. The "Essence" number indicates what you are emotionally working through year-by-year. The "Personal" Year is what you are attracting on a physical level and the potential experiences you will attract for that year. Both the Essence and Personal Year numbers are personal to you and are valid from birthday-to-birthday.

Personal Years always begin on your birthday. If your birthday occurs in the second half of the calendar year, between July 1 through December 31, then you would actually fall under the next year's vibrational pattern. The vibrational pull from birthdays in the last half of the year are magnetic and therefore, automatically pull you towards the following year's vibration. Our computer program takes this calculation into consideration, so the Personal Years indicated in your chart are correctly stated for each year and for those birthdays in the latter half of the year.

Universal Years are not personal to you like the Essence and Personal Years are. They represent the calendar years that we are all in and are calculated in 9-year cycles, repeating years 1 through 9 over and over again throughout your lifespan.

When you read your Essence Chart, you will look at the Essence, Personal, and Universal Year numbers together for a particular year to see what the three vibrational patterns will bring you, year-by-year. A general full written explanation has been provided for all of the possible number variations that "could" be calculated for the Essence, Personal, and Universal Year numbers found in your Essence Chart. It's the combination of all three numbers shown in your personalized chart by year that paints the entire picture of what experiences you will attract for the entire year.

Numbers in Your Essence Chart

The numbers in your chart will either calculate to be a single-digit number (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9), or they will calculate to be a "compound" or three-digit number such as 19/1, 11/2, 13/4, 22/4, 14/5, 23/5, 16/7 or 18/9.

All these numbers have very specific meanings; however, the following compound numbers, 19/1, 11/2, 13/4, 22/4, 14/5, 23/5, 16/7 or 18/9, all have more of an influence over your life's experiences than the single-digit numbers due to the multiple vibrational patterns or traits as opposed to one vibrational pattern. Ideally, if you had a better understanding of what these numbers together represent and how well they will work together or not – either positively or negatively – you could prepare for the experiences that come with each compound number. Balancing the combination of these three numbers is key because they are essentially joined at the hip and must work in sync and act as a team player in order to be effective. The problem lies when some of these compound numbers don't work well together (each bringing a different vibrational pattern that can be disruptive and at odds with each other). If these numbers are not compatible, they may fall too far to the left, middle or right side of this set of numbers of what each frequency reveals. For example, a #16/7 trait is known as a karmic lesson. During this period, lessons will be learned and completed. The aggressive #1 trait represents leadership and creativity, the passive #6 trait is devoted to family, and the nonaggressive #7 trait, known as the intellectual, seeks knowledge and truth for the purpose of educating others. The combination of all three characteristics can cause friction if the individual was not aware of how to balance the magnetic pulls that come from each independent number.

The purpose of the Essence Chart is to bring insight, clarity, understanding and acceptance from your life's experiences on a holistic level; where you started, where you've traveled, where you currently are, and what lies ahead for you five years into the future from the date your chart was generated.

The Essence Numerology Chart is generated from your name and birthdate, and the calendar years. Your Essence Chart is unique only to your personalized information. Following the Essence Chart, you will find the full explanations for each of the Essence, Personal Year and Universal Year numbers as shown in your Essence Chart.

Essence Numbers

The essence is the emotional side of you and foretells the setting, the nature, and the duration of the inner experiences that you must work through to attain spiritual growth and awareness throughout life that your journey demands. These are the physical, mental, and spiritual elements that influence you during a particular year of your life and are the summation of the numerical vibrations of your total name. The Essence, the obligations of the Personal Year, and the Universal Year together form the scenario for the challenges you must work through. Your Essence number represents an emotional stage in your personal growth and reveals what you are ready to attract and integrate into your life. The Personal Year is what type of physical experiences you are likely to attract on a yearly basis, keeping in mind that you do have free will and choice that can supersede your spiritual master plan assigned to you at birth. The Universal Year indicates how the affairs of the world tend to influence the attitude of mankind. The combination of your Essence, Personal, and Universal Years should really be considered together to complete the total picture for each year.

Your #1 Essence

This Essence is about the desire to assume a leadership role in your life, to move forward in a positive direction which brings new beginnings, ideas, and opportunities necessary to improve the structure of your life for the better.

Your #19/1 Essence

This Essence is the desire for new beginnings as well as endings and completions. Important lessons are meant to be learned during this time requiring you to make choices between right and wrong action as a test of character. The independence of action of the aggressive #1 trait (to move forward) and the idealism of the nonaggressive #9 trait (service to mankind) combined, may result in the person responding in a resistant way due to the incompatibility of the traits. It's important to be aware of this and work through this discovery period with grace and an open mind, striking a balance between your personal gains and spiritual growth.

Your #2 Essence

This Essence is the desire for personal growth and requires a spirit of cooperation in all relationships, especially partnerships. Patience and a pleasant disposition are important to attain the peace that this period requires. Your sensitivity, avoidance of confrontation, and drama will play a big part in how you handle your affairs in dealing with your emotions.

Your #11/2 Essence

This Essence is an important learning period. There could be a shock due to a sudden breakup in a partnership, personal or business, or loss that may cause a crisis in life. A sudden separation may occur, as this is the year that partnerships dominate the scene. Any such experience should be interpreted as an opportunity to attain greater spiritual growth and awareness and for developing your intuition.

Your #3 Essence

This Essence is the time to concentrate on self-expression and developing your creative talent. This is an outgoing expression with the emphasis on making new friends, pleasure, and realizing more happiness. Take care not to scatter your forces during this time as you can become impulsive and spin out of control.

Your #4 Essence

This Essence is the desire to build or rebuild a better foundation in your life. Progress may seem slow to you but it is steadfast. This is the time to establish order in your affairs on a personal and business level. This Essence also emphasizes the need to maintain good health habits.

Your #13/4 Essence

This Essence is the desire to build or rebuild a better foundation in your life. This combination of traits denotes the powerful combination of the aggressive leadership #1 trait and the expressive, ambitious and impulsive #3 trait, that's somewhat restricted by the conservative, practical and rigid #4 trait. The #4 trait is slow to move forward and therefore, slows down the other two traits that want to move forward making this set of traits essentially in conflict. Maintain good health habits.

Your #22/4 Essence

This Essence is the desire for spiritual and personal growth and attaining a much better understanding of yourself and how to improve your relationships as a result of your sensitivity and avoidance of confrontation. There is a need to establish good relations with others as the 2s represent partnerships, being more of a diplomat/peacemaker and developing your intuition. Try to assume a slower pace and be patient with this year and yourself.

Your #5 Essence

This Essence is the desire for freedom, movement, and forward progress. It may also bring travel, change, excitement, and a greater social life. Try to avoid the tendency to scatter your energies, your money, or time. This may appear to be a period of unsettlement for you for things are in a state of change. This is a time for patience, calm and avoiding overindulgences in all areas so you don't spin out of control with your impulsive behavior.

Your #14/5 Essence

This Essence promises forward movement with the possibility of some friction in business or personal relations (could be a risky time). It is important to be willing to work through this period with grace and realize that this will pass. The combination of these three numbers represents an aggressive leadership desire with the pioneering spirit of the aggressive #1 trait, working with the conservative and rigid trait of the nonaggressive #4 controller. The adventurous and impulsive #5 trait cannot be restricted by the #4 trait; therefore, there can be some disruption for the person who does not clearly understand the divergent pulls of this vibration.

Your #23/5 Essence

This Essence should be a joyful and creative period of playtime for you this year. The passive #2 trait brings the peace and diplomacy while the impulsive #3 trait stands for joy and creativity. The impulsive #5 trait represents freedom, change, and perhaps travel, so this combination of traits bring progress in many areas based on your free will and choice.

Your #6 Essence

This Essence centers around the domestic affairs of the family, home, children, and service in the community as someone who wants to serve others.

Your #7 Essence

This Essence is an excellent time for self-improvement, spiritual growth, and education to attain a better way of living. This is the number of the seeker of the truth and the study of metaphysics is desirable. Watch your health as this is a period of decreased physical activity and the desire to be alone. If a loss does occur, it is important to accept this as an opportunity to grow spiritually.

Your #16/7 Essence

This Essence is an excellent time for self-improvement, spiritual growth, and education to attain a better way of living. This is the number of the seeker of the truth and the study of metaphysics is desirable. Watch your health as this is a period of decreased physical activity and the desire to be alone. The combination of these three traits, aggressive #1, passive #6 and nonaggressive #7 cause incompatibility in your emotional well-being. If you experience some loss or upset during this time, it is important to accept this as an opportunity to grow spiritually. The #16/7 trait is a combination of conflicting vibrational patterns that can cause an upheaval in the structure of your life. It does not last long and a new life opens up after the experience is over.

Your #8 Essence

This Essence offers the chance for advancement and greater recognition in your career. It also requires constant work and effort. The desire to get your life organized is intense. It is important to balance this great ambition and drive with spiritual growth. Money can be made during this period but you must know what you are doing and not trust to luck.

Your #9 Essence

This Essence is a period that may bring emotional events that are endings and completions on a personal or business level. There may also be an emotional experience to work through during this time. There could even be a romance and marriage during this period from a rebound situation. The nature of the experiences that you will attract depends on your level of understanding of life and your emotional maturity.

Your #18/9 Essence

This Essence is a period that may bring success in any business or artistic profession that you have chosen to express your talent. There may also be an emotional experience to work through if there are many “nines” in your chart. There could even be a romance, marriage or the end of a relationship. Money can be made with the right attitude. The nature of the experiences that you will attract to you depends on your level of understanding of life and your emotional maturity. The #18/9 trait often refers to the affairs of corporate business. It is important to have a good knowledge of legal matters, then assume a positive attitude if there is a challenge of a legal nature. This is a very powerful and ambitious vibrational trait and is generally business related and successful.

Personal Year Numbers

Your Personal Years are one of the most important tools in understanding and preparing you for the true nature of events you are to experience during that year. The Personal Year clearly defines what can be expected, what to avoid, and the nature of your personal affairs to be experienced. This knowledge should be used in conjunction with that of your birthdate numbers, and the Universal Years to show the correlation of all the events and responsibilities that exist between these factors.

The Personal Years technically begin on your birthdate. If the birthdate falls in the last part of the calendar year (July 1 through December 31), then the Personal Year comes under the vibration of the “following” year, even though the individual will have felt the strong vibrational pull months prior to the birthdate. It is easier to flow with life once you know in advance what to expect on a yearly basis, like having a roadmap for guidance. Knowing what the year may bring can give you advance notice to better prepare you for the unexpected events that may occur at any time. It also enhances the ability to live in grace rather than suffer from the pangs of resistance and fear that uncertainty often brings.

Your #1 Personal Year

This Personal Year is getting ready for major changes as you are at a crossroad in your life and need to stay on target. Making new plans and taking action are the keynotes of aggressive #1 year for it marks the beginning of a new nine-year cycle. What you set in motion this year creates the foundation for the rest of the nine-year cycle. How hard you work, and the kind of foundation you build, will follow you throughout this cycle. This requires persistence and courage on your part since the next nine years will depend a great deal upon what you do now. This is the time to make all necessary changes for your future success and to decide exactly what you want out of life. Be aware that there may be some emotional turmoil in the first few months while you are in the thrust of making changes. As you move into the second half of the year you should see the decisions you’ve made materialize, and by the end of the year you will see the fruits of your labor begin to pay off.

Your #19/1 Personal Year

This Personal Year is about getting ready for major changes as you are at a crossroad in your life and need to stay on target. This year is considered to be a compelling year for it brings with it the aggressive #1 trait that represents new beginnings and creativity, while the nonaggressive #9 trait brings endings, completions, or transformation. The second aggressive #1 trait brings with it a leadership ability to pave new roads, seed planting, and high energy. The way this combination of numbers works is you move forward, eliminate what no longer serves you, and then you move forward again.

This year will likely yield a very powerful, electrical vibration, or resulting in becoming a test of character and an emotionally challenging time for you. This is due to the conflict in vibrational patterns amongst the three vibrational traits.

Your #2 Personal Year

This Personal Year is the year that tact, diplomacy, and cooperation will bring you your greatest success and reward. It also requires a delicate sense of balance, and a willingness to go around obstacles, without losing sight of your goals. Because your sensitivity and openness are heightened, many people find their partner in this year, so your focus should be on relationships, partnerships, and the home. Business partnerships are also important and need to be cultivated. Strengthen friendships and be patient as new opportunities can drop in your lap unexpectedly. You may feel moody, experience nervous energies, and cry. This year deals with emotional health and maintaining balance but will be one of growth and advancement, but through gentle means. Patience and time are the keynotes of this Personal Year. It is not advisable to make big changes during this year, but rather remain in status quo and seek a more peaceful year.

Your #11/2 Personal Year

This Personal Year is one for spiritual growth and inspiration being the keynotes of this vibration. It is a time of increased emotional and nervous energy, so there is a need to listen to your own intuition for guidance. Your increased psychic and creative abilities will reach an all-time high and be an inspiration to others. This could also become a heartbreaking time involving a disruption in either personal or business relations, such as an ending of a relationship or starting of a new one.

Your #3 Personal Year

This Personal Year is for self-expression, expansion, and growth. It is a time of heightened personal expression such as taking up art, writing, and music or speaking but for sure, moving forward with your goals. The focus of this year is creation, education, travel, social activities, career and friendships, old and new. You are highly dynamic and charismatic in addition to being impulsive, so you will need grounding to prevent spinning out of control. You may choose to let go of friendships that have become one-sided and a drain of your energy or those who don't contribute anything to your life. This could be a successful year with the fruition of all your energies and talents. Try not to scatter your energies, money, or emotions. It is the time to put ideas into reality. Plan the career you think will fulfill your greatest ambitions, talents, and dreams.

Your #4 Personal Year

This Personal Year is for building new foundations or organizations and making concrete plans for a more secure future by being organized and practical. Hard work, personal discipline, overcoming obstacles and limitations are the focus of this year. This is a good year to buy real estate, relocate, or remodel your home in addition to selling and trading. You may meet a partner this year, for the nonaggressive #4 year is one of getting your affairs in order and establishing a new foundation. In addition, this is a practical year that requires you to “keep very focused” whether you want to or not. Organization, order, and a systematic approach are important in all that you do. Handle all business and legal matters from an efficient, organized, and stable position.

Your #13/4 Personal Year

This Personal Year is a powerful combination of three vibrational traits that must work together in order to be effective as team players. It combines the aggressive leadership of the #1 trait, and the impulsive, creative energy of the #3 trait. The nonaggressive #4 trait on the other hand, is known for bringing forth ideas for building foundations that benefit mankind. This is a rigid trait but adds to the talent for detail, discipline, and the ability to overcome obstacles. This combination of these traits, aggressive, impulsive and nonaggressive can cause incompatibility if there is not an understanding on how these traits operate on a vibrational level.

Your #22/4 Personal Year

This Personal Year may be one where nervous energy is magnified because this is a Master number where the intensity of this year is greatly enhanced or elevated because of this powerful vibrational trait. The passive “twos” bring increased emotion and sensitivity to this vibration while the nonaggressive #4 trait emphasizes detail, hard work, discipline, and stability. Concentrate on taking time to get your affairs in order during this vibration. This will also be a time for personal relationships, whether you are ending one or starting a new one. Ultimately, you will find great rewards through working in the name of humanity and the world, and you should find yourself drawn toward deep involvement in humanitarian organizations and foundations to bring forth great ideas for benefiting mankind.

Your #5 Personal Year

This Personal Year will be a dynamic change after last year’s struggle. Release the old and adopt the new. Freedom and change are the keynotes of this exciting year, bringing opportunity for new growth and expansion and the possibility for travel. It also promises variety, change, and progress. The feeling of restlessness may be present during this year, requiring that you make definite changes and establish goals of your freedom wisely and prudently and to act quickly on them. Adopt new ideas and accept this change in the spirit of progress and excitement. The channels of communication may easily open up to you during this year. Make the most of this energetic period, as it is not the time to scatter your forces or fall into a rut, so remain grounded. Resolve old issues and create balance in your life. Avoid over indulgences and be aware that this year may present challenges, so it’s important to proceed with grace.

Your #14/5 Personal Year

This Personal Year may bring some dissatisfaction and friction. That's because there are three traits that are generally in conflict with each other: aggressive, controlling and impulsive. The aggressive #1 trait desires to express leadership of its creative and original ideas while the impulsive #5 trait is the vibration of freedom, change, and variety. Between these two numbers is the rigid and controlling #4 trait that stands for detail, discipline, routine, and the importance of a solid foundation. In this case, the #5 trait of the #14/5 trait suggests change and action with uncertainty in money matters dealing with speculation or investment and therefore, this combination is known as risky business involving business matters.

Your #23/5 Personal Year

This Personal Year is a combination of three unique traits. The passive #2 trait desires peace and harmony mingled with the impulsive social, creative, and joy of the #3 trait. The second impulsive #5 trait requires freedom, change, travel, and variety. Together these numbers create a pleasant, creative, and lively vibration. Freedom and change are the keynotes of this exciting year, bringing opportunity for new growth and expansion and the possibility for travel. The feeling of restlessness may be present during the year, requiring you to make definite changes and establish goals for your freedom wisely and prudently and to act quickly on them. Adopt new ideas and accept this change in the spirit of progress and excitement. The channels of communication may easily open up to you during this year. Make the most of this energetic period, as it is not the time to scatter your forces or fall into a rut but rather, you will need grounding so you don't spin out of control. Resolve old issues and create balance in your life. Avoid over indulgences and be aware that this year may present some challenges, so it's important to proceed with grace.

Your #6 Personal Year

This Personal Year is the year to concentrate on creating harmony, balance, and adjustment in all business, community, and domestic affairs. It is also a good time for marriage as you desire to love and be loved which is vital to your health and happiness, establishing a home, or engaging in a community project. Home, family, relationships, and career are your key focus. During this year you could also be ending or starting a new relationship because this is a domestic adjustment type of year.

Family members are your priority, even though they can drain your energies in addition to needing your help, especially financial. Regardless of the circumstances, you will always be there to accept your responsibility with support. You can cement great friendships and find new and lasting ones during this year. The strong desire to establish order should bring great satisfaction to you and may require that you listen to the advice of others. Strive to keep your ideals high in spite of what may appear to be an unfair situation.

Your #7 Personal Year

This Personal Year is for you to seek greater understanding, pursue intellectual interests, establish peace of mind, and to spend more time alone. It is also the time for mental housecleaning and for increasing spiritual enlightenment through meditation. You can feel a bit depressed or lonely at times as you search for your life's mission by allowing your soul to guide your destiny.

Your metaphysical interests will expand your awareness of things beyond third dimensional reality. The desire to be alone to escape from normal pressures of life may prevail, so this is not a good time for social activities. Take advantage of this time to build up your health and improve your mind. You are actually laying the foundation for future plans and goals, which will be of great importance to you. This should be considered a period of waiting. You will sense decreased physical energy, so avoid the feeling of depression that this could bring. Follow your hunches and flow with the slower pace of this year.

Your #16/7 Personal Year

This Personal Year is a year for mental house cleaning and spiritual growth. It is a good time for introspection and spiritual growth as you may experience less physical energy because of the increased mental activity. The #16/7 trait is a combination of aggressive #1, passive #6 and nonaggressive #7 vibrational traits that will cause incompatibility and is therefore, considered to be a karmic year with lessons to be learned for that reason. It's important to live through any disruptive experience with grace and tolerance. Go through this time with the understanding of knowing it is for your higher self and inner growth to avoid the feeling of being depressed as the #7 trait requires alone time that leads to depression if secluded for longer periods of time.

Your #8 Personal Year

This Personal Year brings great opportunities for business and financial success. Your power is visible and strong, and your mental creativity is high. Your vision and intuition will guide you while you become more efficient and focused. Money, power, business, and career are the keynotes of this year; however, you should be cautioned that this could be a year of financial loss if you don't remain focused and motivated. Planning, organizing, and putting into action new ideas follow suit. Since this is a business year, control your emotions and face the real facts in order to bring improvement in your financial situation. During this time, you may want to buy a new car or travel – just to avoid boredom. It's also very important to balance your business drive with volunteering your services and taking the time to join worthwhile organizations. This will bring you much satisfaction in the long run. This branching out into business and charitable affairs will give you a greater sense of freedom and accomplishment and undoubtedly, will be a very satisfying year for you.

Your #9 Personal Year

This Personal Year is for completions and endings that come before the beginning of a new nine-year cycle. This is the time to move on from relationships or things that no longer work for you. This can be a very difficult year, particularly if you do not like change. Completion brings with it the chance for new opportunities and interests in life for the incoming cycle, which can be full of changes with abundant energy. It is the time to let go of old attitudes and habits to make room for the new. Try to assume an impersonal attitude toward the changes and challenges of this year. Many decisions will have to be made. Try not to work too hard and take good care of your health for you have much to do in the coming year. Be social and communicative, and enjoy music and other arts. Your creativity is higher than usual during this year. The influence of this year is generally felt strongly, perhaps stronger than any other time. You will experience the element of excitement of a new and promising year.

Your #18/9 Personal Year

This Personal Year is associated with social, political/military, financial, religious and/or medical arenas. It forms a magnetic force to do good work benefiting mankind. The aggressive #1 trait represents leadership, originality, and creative ideas along with efficiency to the equation. The aggressive #8 trait is very efficient and has sound judgment with the ability for multitasking and is more financially motivated and ambitious than the other two traits.

The nonaggressive #9 trait holds with it the vibrational energy of the numbers 1 - 8 that make up the #9 trait that represents completion, force, energy, healing, universality, and compassion. The #9 trait is the number of services to mankind (acting like a compassionate humanitarian). The #9 trait is known for needing to offload what no longer works; thus, creating an emotional aspect of letting go in order to be progressive. With this combination of traits, the #18/9 trait is the most successful and financial set of numbers.

Universal Year Numbers

Universal Year numbers are not personal to you and represent each year we are all in and the vibrational patterns of world affairs of that particular year that affects everyone and everything that is going on around us. And these unfolding vibrational patterns are felt by everyone “equally.” It is of prime importance that you grasp and understand how your personal reality and life experiences fit into what the Universal Years bring. People of all walks of life, cultures, religions, political views, and more are interacting and reacting to those “Universal” events. The nature of “Universal” vibrational patterns is such that you really have no control over them. You cannot manipulate or change them, in and of themselves. But the numbers of your “personal” patterns (your Essence and Personal Years) can blend with the Universal numbers to create an environment which will be defined by your personal information contained within your blueprint assigned at birth.

Keep in mind that your Essence and Personal Year numbers are “personal” to you while the Universal Years are not. You will still want to pay attention to the Universal Year numbers along with focusing on your Essence and Personal Year numbers to see the whole picture for that particular year.

Your #1 Universal Year

This Universal Year is the start of new beginnings, putting plans in place, moving forward in your life and is an aggressive year to accomplish your goals.

Your #2 Universal Year

This Universal Year is considered to be a status quo year and it is not recommended that you take on "new" projects because this year is meant to be a quieter year, less energy, peaceful, and generally wanting to concentrate on your relationships.

Your #11/2 Universal Year

This Universal Year will likely be very electrical in nature; highly emotional, and highly charged.

Your #3 Universal Year

This Universal Year is known as a “play” year to express yourself creatively as well as traveling and socializing.

Your #4 Universal Year

This Universal Year is the year to get your affairs in order; either building or rebuilding (personal or business) and is actually known as a “work” year.

Your #22/4 Universal Year

This Universal Year stands for “ideal realized” and continually striving for perfection either building or rebuilding on a personal or business level.

Your #5 Universal Year

This Universal Year is a year for unexpected changes where anything goes.

Your #6 Universal Year

This Universal Year is a year for domestic adjustment generally surrounding personal relationships, family and friends.

Your #7 Universal Year

This Universal Year is a year for endings and completions, education, self-evaluation, and concentrating on personal development.

Your #8 Universal Year

This Universal Year is a year for feeling motivated, looking for business opportunities, getting organized, and paving the road for improving your financial portfolio.

Your #9 Universal Year

This Universal Year is a year of emotional endings and completions but be open to change as change brings new opportunities.
